The Growing Your Food programme has been designed to educate and inspire pupils studying food, diet, plants, natural and food sciences, particularly focusing on workshops suitable for children at Key Stage 2.

Smart Greens UK adopts a practical cross-curriculum and STEM education approach using traditional growing and a commercial-scale Aquaponics system, as the basis for teaching and pupil engagement. Our teaching is of particular relevance to the core competences and the framework of skills and knowledge around food, diet and physical activity that include the School Food Plan and the Eatwell Guide.

In respect to fresh produce, we answer the questions

- Where does our food come from?
- How does it grow?
- In a changing world, is our approach to fresh food changing?

A school/group day trip includes the following workshops:

- How does your garden grow?
- Get to know your vegetables
- Plants need feeding
- Vegetable Hunt
- Ask & Taste

A programme to educate and inspire pupils studying Green Energy & Electricity, including wind and solar generation, community clean energy, sustainable living and natural systems, particularly focusing on sessions suitable for children at Key Stage 2.

Activities are fun, interactive and develop key maths and science investigation skills.

Energy is what makes everything happen in the universe! Our lives today utterly depend on abundant, freely available supplies, yet the way we have been generating it is causing huge problems - we need to get better, fast!

'Green' energy means energy that is generated in clean, sustainable ways – ones we can continue for the long term, without piling up problems.

A school/group trip includes the following workshops:

- Energy & Electricity
- Natural Energy Sources
- Why & How do we use Electricity?
- Visit to Westmill Solar Farm
- Visit to Westmill Wind Farm

A trip will include hand-on explorations at Farmer Gow's, and a visit to Westmill Wind and Solar Farm, to experience close-up how wind and sun supply sufficient power for whole communities.
